How to integrate pure intention with your personal timeline

Project the feelings of one of your desires onto your timeline, somewhere into the future.

Bring that feeling alive in your imagination

Now move that feeling along your timeline to the present.

Dwell on it for a few moments, in a relaxed daydream fashion.

The Power of Pure Intention

How to detach from the outcome

Caputure this 'new feeling' in a balloon or cloud
and have it float off into the universe.

This is your way of detaching

Make a note on your calendar to repeat this Power of Pure Intention routine in 14 days.

During the intermediate days,
forget about it as much as you can.

The philosophy

It is helpful if you view your role as a provider in the great chain of being.

Things come to you in order to be enjoyed, shared and also to be enjoyed by others.

Which is again a source of joy for the provider.

Power of Pure Intention

The theory

Your point of power is in the present, which is your point of theoretical infinite potential about your past and future.

Needs generate 'fear' as a consequence of not meeting the need.

These fears set up limitations in the field of infinite potential.

Detachment from needs
coupled with your focus on 'desire in its pure form' releases the infinite potential of the universe in fulfilling the desire.
